We will ensure that reasonable steps are taken by the above categories of parties to protect and/or maintain confidentiality of your information that we may disclose to them.

Limiting the processing of personal data

Although, as stated above, we only process your personal data for purposes related to performing a contract of employment, in the event your personal data is being processed for other purposes (with your consent), you have a right to request us to stop such processing. You may exercise this right by contacting the Human Resource Department, The University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus Sdn Bhd. This right extends to stopping the processing of your personal data which relates to the personal data of other persons.

Provision of information

As a job applicant, you have the right to decide what information that you wish to provide. However, please be informed that all the information that we request for, as stated above, are mandatory information for us. If you choose not to provide and/or fail to supply us with such personal data (and/or decide not to give us consent to process your personal data, including explicit consent for sensitive personal data), we will not be able to offer you employment with the Company (in the event you are a candidate applying for employment with us).

Accordingly, if you decide not to provide the mandatory information to us, it may necessarily mean that an offer of employment will not be made.

The Company reserves the right to review and/or amend this Notice from time to time and will communicate such changes along with the updated Policy on the Company's website, and/or other appropriate communication means as may be determined by the Company.

Nothing in this Notice shall limit the rights of the Company and employees under the Personal Data Protection Act 2010.
