

WELCOME TO THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTTINGHAM MALAYSIA CAMPUS

Congratulations on your offer to study at The University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus. This flyer will guide you through the next steps needed to make your arrival at the University as smooth as possible.

Your offer

There are two main types of offer:

- conditional
- unconditional

A conditional offer enables you to study at the University (when you fulfil certain conditions). Please note that you must provide satisfactory evidence that you have met these conditions prior to starting the course by forwarding to the University the relevant results or documents. Full details of the conditions are explained in the offer letter.

An unconditional offer means that you have met all the academic requirements set by the University. However, you will need to provide the original academic transcripts and certificates during the registration day for verification purpose.

Important Note: If your application is successful, you will be able to download your offer letter from MyNottingham. You will need to click on the link in the offer letter to download information related to your offer and registration. No hard copies will be provided. Please print out a copy of the offer letter for registration, visa or scholarship application purposes.

Accepting your place

Once you have decided to study at The University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus, you will need to formally accept your offer for a place within the specified deadline.

In order to accept your offer, you will need to do the following:

1. Remit the tuition fee deposit of RM1,000 (Malaysian offer holders) or RM2,000 (International offer holders). The tuition fee deposit will be off-set from the first semester's tuition fee.
2. Accept your offer to study by clicking on the accept/decline link under 'Applications' tab and proceed to make the tuition fee deposit online or email the proof of payment for the tuition fee deposit (if payment is not made through the online portal) to the Finance Office.
3. If you are being sponsored by your Government or any organisation, you will need to email the letter confirming your full sponsorship details before the offer lapse date to the Sponsorship Unit. Once you have received a confirmation from the Sponsorship Unit, you will be able to accept your offer through MyNottingham.

Specified deadline – students will normally be given a 4-week deadline. However, please refer to the due date stated in the course deposit checklist on MyNottingham for the exact date.

Remember – you must either make the tuition fee deposit through MyNottingham or send a proof of payment (if payment is not made through the online portal) to the Finance Office. Your offer will automatically lapsed after the specific deadline. If you are fully sponsored applicants, please send the evidence of sponsorship to the Sponsorship Unit before accepting the offer.

More about the tuition fee deposit

What if I don't pay the deposit within the specified period?

If you failed to accept your offer and make the payment of the tuition fee deposit within the specified period, your offer for a place will automatically lapse.

A lapsed offer can be re-activated by paying the reactivation processing fee of RM150 for Malaysian applicants or RM200 for International applicants. Please accept and reactivate your offer on MyNottingham and pay the re-activation fee and the tuition fee deposit to request for the reactivation of your offer.

However, please be advised that the University may not be able to guarantee you another offer if the programme which you have applied for earlier has reached its maximum quota.

Do I have to pay the tuition fee deposit if I am a sponsored student?

Government or organisation sponsored offer holders are exempted from paying this fee when they provide a letter which confirms their full sponsorship details before the offer lapse date. Offer holders who receive partial funding (less than 100% of the tuition fee) are still required to pay the tuition fee deposit.

The proof of the funding must be provided to the Sponsorship Unit before the lapse date or else you are obliged to pay the tuition fee deposit together with the reactivation fee.

If the deposit has been made earlier, it will be refunded to you once you have registered and the University receives evidence of full funding for your studies.

Will I get a refund if I can't come to the University?

The University will refund the tuition fee deposit (minus administrative fee) in the following circumstances:

Malaysian Offer Holders – Tuition Fee Deposit (less RM150 administrative fee) will be refunded if you have a conditional offer but fail to satisfy the academic conditions.

International Offer Holders – Tuition Fee Deposit (less RM200 administrative fee) will be refunded if you have a conditional offer but fail to satisfy the academic conditions.

The deposit is non-refundable in any other circumstances.

For us to be able to process your refund, please submit the 'Refund of Tuition Fee Deposit Form' which you can download from the offer acceptance webpage:
