Welcome to The University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus

“On behalf of the school, let us welcome you to our prestigious MBA programme. The MBA is the flagship programme of the school, where we strive to balance the constructs of theory, application and practice in our delivery of the course. The environment provided by the school and University offers a nurturing ambience for you to learn from academicians, industry practitioners and also fellow course members. We invite you to peruse this brochure and our school website to learn more about our MBA programme, and wish you all the best as you embark on a new journey towards professional development and learning.”

Dr Lau Chee Kwong
Director, MBA Programme

The University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus (UNMC) is a world-class international institution providing the unique opportunity to gain a top quality UK degree whilst studying in Malaysia.

In 2000 The University of Nottingham became the first British university to set up a branch campus in Malaysia, earning the Queen's Award for Enterprise 2001 and the Queen's Award for Industry (International Trade) 2006. Since opening in Malaysia we have also established a thriving campus in Ningbo, China, making us a truly international institution.

After opening our Malaysia Campus in central Kuala Lumpur in 2000, we moved to a beautiful, purpose-built 125-acre campus in 2005. Situated near Semenyih – about 45 minutes' drive from the Kuala Lumpur city centre and 30 minutes' drive from Kuala Lumpur International Airport – our thriving campus is home to over 4,000 students, including 1,400 international students from over 70 countries. Our international student community enriches and enlivens the student experience at UNMC, providing a vibrant and diverse multicultural environment in which to live and study.

The Malaysia Campus is a full and integral part of The University of Nottingham, UK. The campus itself shares design themes that mirror characteristics of our University Park Campus in Nottingham, UK, and provides a complete student experience with first-class facilities for teaching and learning, research and leisure. The University's Kuala Lumpur Teaching Centre is located at Chulan Tower, in the heart of the Kuala Lumpur city centre, where certain postgraduate programmes including programmes in business and management are delivered. All teaching, assessments and examinations are carried out in English.

The University of Nottingham is ranked within the top 1% of all universities worldwide* and is recognised internationally for its world-leading research. As a research-led university, students studying at UNMC will be connected to leading academics, the latest research and renowned global companies.

Our worldwide network, UK-quality degrees and field-leading academics all combine to offer a life-changing educational experience that will serve to enhance your career prospects and realise your true potential.

About Nottingham University Business School

MBA students socialising at The Kuala Lumpur Teaching Centre.

Nottingham University Business School (NUBS) at the Malaysia Campus is an integral part of Nottingham University Business School established in the UK.

The school aims to enhance business and management knowledge and practice in a responsible and sustainable way using our global presence. NUBS was established on the Malaysia Campus in 2000, and our presence here provides students with unique insights into Asian business growth and development.

We are a large and culturally diverse school, with 40 full-time academic staff, from countries such as Malaysia, Indonesia, South Korea, Australia, India and the United Kingdom and over 1,000 foundation, undergraduate, and postgraduate students.

The school is accredited by the European Quality Improvement System (EQUIS) and the Association of MBAs (AMBA). We are also proud to have recently joined the Association of Asia-Pacific Business Schools (AAPBS). These endorsements signify that the school has met the stringent standards for business education.

Research

The school recognises that the continued intellectual development of our staff is the foundation of excellence in teaching and for the creation of leaders who are able to compete with knowledge, creativity and integrity in a globally competitive environment.

Research and teaching at NUBS Malaysia Campus is organised within the following academic divisions:

- Accounting, Finance and Law
- Business Economics and Quantitative Methods
- Management and Organisational Behaviour
- Strategy and Marketing

Research clusters

Our research clusters at NUBS Malaysia Campus were established to facilitate the exchange of ideas and to explore emerging research issues and areas, as well as to work effectively with industry counterparts and other research organisations. Besides enhancing research networking and collaboration, the clusters better integrate and highlight niche areas and strengths of expertise within the school.

There are presently five research clusters within NUBS at the Malaysia Campus:

- consumer marketing and behavioural science
- studies in innovation and productivity
- accountability and governance
- tourism
- innovation policy and management

Research centres

Many members of our academic staff are also members of research centres affiliated with the Business School, UK, including the Globalisation and Economic Policy Centre.

Globalisation and Economic Policy Centre (GEP)

GEP was established in 2001 and is a major research centre studying the impact of globalisation and economic policy and one of the biggest of its kind in the world. The Centre has an impressive international reputation; its academics have advised the Treasury, the World Bank and WTO.

Your say

"From what I've learned it has helped me to chart various strategic growth initiatives. How can we develop our customers' loyalty? How can we get our partners' loyalty? Developing business analytics and intelligence. Mainly I would say I am now much more focused, much more consciously aware of results that I would need to produce. I find myself to be much more productive. So I would say now I am clearer in terms of business objectives."

MBA at Nottingham

Asia's world-class business school

At the Malaysia Campus, NUBS is providing Asia with its first experience of a world-class business school on a purpose-built campus and with highly-qualified faculty drawn from Nottingham, Malaysia and internationally. The school will provide you with a stimulating, challenging and continuously improving learning environment. Well-known researchers within NUBS at the University's campuses in China, Malaysia and the UK, and faculty members with international consulting experience combine the application of academic theory with good business practice.

The MBA programme offered at the Malaysia Campus provides the means for accelerating your progression and promotion, as well as for a strategic direction change in your career path. The MBA will add value to your first degree by developing an integrated and critically aware understanding of management and organisations in an international context, and assisting you to take a more effective role within your organisation. The overall objective of the NUBS MBA is to educate individuals as managers and business specialists, and thus to improve the quality of management as a profession.

Staff expertise

Our highly-qualified and research active academics come from a range of backgrounds, have a wealth of knowledge and expertise and come from all over the world. They have worked in national and international universities, provided consultancy services or conducted research for several private and government agencies. Many have authored books, articles and papers in a range of regional and international publications. Staff specialisations span a wide spectrum of topics, including corporate social responsibility (CSR), entrepreneurship, financial economics, financial management, international economics, international management, macroeconomics, and operations management to name but a few.

Your say

"I wanted a place where the stringent procedures and the methods to which a university or any MBA programme should apply to both the people whom they admit in to the University and to the lecturers there. So I found Nottingham Malaysia Campus and I've certainly gained a lot from my course there. I've been able to fully apply my knowledge and found that I've been able to further develop my competencies, and I think it has really benefitted me a lot in my work."

MBA programme

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) programme provides a course in general, financial and corporate management for individuals seeking career advancement or diversification. The MBA course follows a core programme whilst allowing the following specialisations.

- MBA
- MBA Corporate Social Responsibility
- MBA Entrepreneurship
- MBA Finance

You will need to undertake the relevant specialist modules, and your specialisation will be shown on your degree award. The syllabus is similar to that of the UK campus, with very slight variations incorporating local elements.

Our MBA programme aims to develop knowledge and skills in fundamental management disciplines, while also including specialist modules in various areas of management. The core modules are aimed at developing knowledge of the fundamental management disciplines, along with the ability to apply this knowledge to business issues in an integrated fashion. The elective modules allow you to concentrate in-depth on more specific subjects according to your individual interests and career requirements. You may use the management project to concentrate in-depth on a management topic specific to your individual interests and career requirements.

In addition to lecture delivery, your classes for each module will also consist of case studies, group breakout discussions, and group presentations, depending on module subject matter.

Most modules will involve group work with participants from many different industrial, commercial, geographical and cultural backgrounds. You will develop the skills to implement agreed solutions effectively and efficiently, along with interpersonal skills to enable you to interact effectively across a wide range of business stakeholders. Many modules will also include guest sessions with industry practitioners – from multinational corporations, Malaysian companies, entrepreneurs, government-linked organisations, and MBA alumni. You will also have the opportunity of attending study skills sessions and additional workshops and seminars on research methods relevant to management projects.

Your say

“The best part about the MBA is about the students and the interaction between the students and the faculty members. It is very interesting to see other people's points of view, it is very interesting to see how different industries work, in a classroom environment where everybody can openly share their ideas and learn.”

Postgraduate business students studying in the MBA Workroom, Malaysia Campus.

Course structure

You must complete a total of 12 taught modules and a management project totalling 180 credits. Each module is worth 10 credits and the Management Project is worth 60 credits. These programmes offer a flexible mode of study that allows part-time students to take modules at their own pace.

Assessment

Depending on the module, you may be assessed by examination, group or individual coursework, group or individual presentations, or a combination of assessment methods.

The marking and grading criteria are the same as the UK campus. Assessment questions are different from the UK (set by module convenors at our Malaysia Campus) and are moderated by the UK campus and External Examiners.

Degree certificate

The certificate is the same as that awarded in the UK. It does not mention the name of any campus. For MBA degrees with a specialisation, the specialisation will be indicated on the certificate.

Opportunity to study overseas

Individuals wishing to study overseas can take up to two approved modules delivered by our UK campus or our overseas partner institution in Singapore (subject to the availability of modules).

Core modules

- Accounting and Finance
- Business Economics
- Entrepreneurship and Creativity
- Managing People
- Marketing
- Operations Management
- Strategic Management
- Sustainable Decisions and Organisations

Elective modules

MBA
Any four modules from the electives modules listed in this section, or the additional modules (see opposite).

MBA Entrepreneurship

- Entrepreneurship in Practice
- Innovation Management

Plus two modules from the elective modules listed in any other specialisation, or additional modules (see below).

MBA Finance

Students must take at least two of the following three modules:

- Corporate Finance
- Financial and Monetary Economics
- International Finance

Plus two (if students have chosen two of the above three modules) or one (if students have chosen all three of the above modules) module(s) from the elective modules listed in any other specialisation, or additional modules (see below).

Additional modules*

- Business and Commercial Law
- Contemporary Themes in Marketing
- Management Consulting
- Managing the Human Resource

*Additional modules are subject to change

Management Project

Students must undertake either a management project, or a group management project. The management project is an individual project of 15,000–20,000 words on an approved subject relevant to the student's chosen specialisation (weight 100%). The group management project (available to full-time students only) comprises a group project of 15,000 words on an approved subject relevant to the student's chosen specialisation (weight 60%) and an individual project of 5,000 words (weight 40%) reviewing conceptual issues relevant to the group management project.

Your say

"We did something called FME – Financial Monetary Economics... It helped me a lot, especially having a non-finance background. It makes things a lot easier today when someone talks about economic matters, like the subprime mortgage crisis."

"With the MBA I get to mix with people from marketing, from management, engineering, sales and everybody offers a different perspective of the same thing. The friendships that I made are still very alive today. Some of these friends that I made – we are now doing business together, we work together, we have dinner together... So that is really wonderful."

Location

Teaching on our MBA programme is split between our main campus in Semenyih and Kuala Lumpur Teaching Centre (KLTC) based in the Kuala Lumpur city centre. Where classes take place depends on your mode of study.

Full-time

Semester 1: teaching takes place between The University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus and Kuala Lumpur Teaching Centre (KLTC).

Semesters 2 and 3: all teaching is conducted at KLTC.

Part-time

All teaching is conducted at KLTC.

Transport is available for full-time students to travel between our main campus and KLTC. Full-time students may wish to consider making arrangements for accommodation at locations that minimise travelling times to KLTC in Semesters 2 and 3. Students may opt to stay on our main campus in Semester 1 and to stay in Kuala Lumpur in Semesters 2 and 3.

Module delivery and class hours

Teaching takes place during the day or in the evening depending on your mode of study. Part-time students will be taught in the evening while full-time students have classes in the daytime or evening at different stages of the programme. Most modules are conducted in three-hour sessions per week over 11 weeks. Certain electives are taught over seven-to-ten-day blocks totalling 30 hours of teaching.
