For EPF Withdrawal, PTPTN Loan, Corporate/Government Loan or Sponsorship

- EPF Withdrawal

Students who have yet to apply to EPF or waiting for approval are to pay the full tuition fees in one lump sum or instalment payments or subject to University's payment method.

- PTPTN Loan

PTPTN will release the loan directly to students' bank accounts on semester basis subject to students passing the examination.

Therefore, students who have been successful in obtaining PTPN loan are required to pay one academic year tuition fee or semester basis.

- Corporate/Government Loan or Sponsorship

Original documents including confirmation letter from the Sponsoring Body needs to be submitted to the Sponsorship Unit on or before the registration day.

EARLY PAYMENT DISCOUNT

Commencing from September 2016 intake (academic year 2016/2017), students will be entitled to a 4% early payment discount if they were to pay the full academic year fee by the 31st of July each year. Should you pay at any time on or after the 1st of August but before the tuition fee due date you would only be entitled to a 2% early payment discount for the full academic year tuition fee. Payments made after the due date would not be entitled to any early payment discounts.

The early payment discounts will not be applicable for any subsequent withdrawals during the academic year from the program/course.

Early payment discount is not applicable to sponsoring bodies. All such discounts will be calculated based on net payment due after all other scholarships and discounts.

CALCULATION OF TUITION FEE

Tuition fee will be calculated as follows if the student is paying for one academic year tuition fee and entitled to any discounts from the University.

Net tuition fee = Gross tuition fee – discount entitled from University (scholarship) - 4% or 2% early bird - acceptance fee

LATE PAYMENT OF FEES

Failure to settle the outstanding tuition fee will result in a late payment penalty of 5% per annum being imposed on any outstanding balance or a minimum of RM100, whichever is higher.

REFUND POLICY

Commencing from the January 2017 (academic year 2016/2017) all requests for tuition fee refunds upon withdrawal will be based on a percentage basis with a 15% step reduction as follows:

No of days from start of registration		% of refund
0	30	80%
31	60	65%
61	90	50%

The university will not entertain any requests for refund 91 days and beyond from the date of registration.

In all cases, any other debt owing to the University will be subtracted from any refund of fees. The University reserves the right, at the discretion of the Director of Financial and Business Services, to make an administrative charge against any refund in order to cover any incidental costs associated with making the refund.

NONPAYMENT OF FEES

Any student with outstanding debt for 28 days from the due date for settlement will not be permitted to continue their course of study, or take any examinations, and will be suspended from their course until such time as the fees or other sums due are paid in full. As a result of such suspension, the student will not be permitted access to any University facilities, nor to attend any lectures or classes.

Any student at the University residential accommodation with outstanding residence fees that have not been paid by the end of the semester, to which the fees relate, will not be permitted to return to the University residential accommodation at the commencement of the following semester.

Student suspended for outstanding fees or other sums due that have not been paid, must obtain the permission of the Director of Financial and Business Services and pay the outstanding fees or other sums due in full, before they can be re-admitted to their course.

A student, who has not paid in full any fees or other sums due within three weeks at the latest before they are due to graduate, or to be awarded a diploma or certificate, shall not be permitted to graduate or be awarded such a diploma or certificate.

A student who has not paid in full any fees or other sums due shall not be eligible to receive the emoluments of any fellowship, studentship, scholarship, bursary or prize awarded to them by the University.

The Director of Financial and Business Services has the discretion to determine if a student who has not paid fees or other sums due shall nevertheless be permitted to continue their course of study and to attend examinations. The decision will be made on a case by case basis. In addition, the Director of Financial and Business Services has the discretion to determine whether a student who has not paid their on-campus residence fees shall nevertheless be permitted to remain in the University residential accommodation.
