Teaching excellence

Students are the heart of the University and learn in an academically-stimulating environment. Students are especially nurtured with regards to personal development, which includes current entrepreneurial and leadership skills. These commitments and their achievement are recognised by the Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) Gold rating for outstanding teaching achieved in 2017 and Rating System for Malaysian Higher Education Institutions (SETARA) 2018/2019 5-star 'Excellent' for mature university category.

The SETARA rating is further evidence of our strong commitment to the growth of the higher education sector in Malaysia, in providing access to students to earn an international degree with mobility opportunities across campuses in the UK and China. In addition, being part of two quality assurance jurisdictions (QAA*, UK and MQA) further strengthens our quality standing, as we are independently evaluated by these agencies. The University is consistently among the highest ranking performers in independent teaching assessments.

An internationally recognised UK degree

All degrees offered by University of Nottingham Malaysia are University of Nottingham degrees and are subject to the same quality assurance processes as those offered in the UK. You will graduate with a degree from University of Nottingham, irrespective of the campus at which you complete your programme, be it in the UK, China or Malaysia. You will receive a UK-style education and all our degree programmes, coursework materials, and assessments are in English.

Academic excellence

All academic staff at the University of Nottingham Malaysia are selected based on their excellence in teaching and research. Diversity is our strength. Our highly qualified academic staff members are from the UK, Malaysia and various countries recruited based on open international competition.

respective discipline, they are required to obtain Post Graduate Certificate in Higher Education (PGCHE). Apart from teaching, academic staff members are required to be active in research and publication and be involved in community and international engagement.

Quality programmes

We offer a comprehensive and varied range of programmes, catering to students at all levels, through foundation, undergraduate and postgraduate to PhD. Our programmes span a range of disciplines and subjects across arts and social sciences, engineering and science. Our degrees are accredited by both the Malaysian and UK quality assurance agencies and by relevant national and international professional bodies such as the Association of MBAs, EQUIS, the UK Engineering Council, the General Pharmaceutical Council (UK), Board of Engineers Malaysia (BEM) and Pharmacy Board Malaysia (PBM).

Our undergraduate and postgraduate taught programmes provide a structured framework for study. They are based upon a programme of strategic and innovative delivery and assessment mechanisms and also traditional ones such as lectures, seminars and tutorials. Students will normally complete compulsory core modules and will have the opportunity to select from a number of optional modules.

These programmes aim to equip you with a curiosity-driven and deep understanding of your subject, as well as a critical approach and skills relevant to your future career. Our teaching is informed by the very latest research findings and our programmes constantly evolve to incorporate new research developments, with many delivered by research scholars, passionate about their subjects. We also regularly consult with businesses and employers to ensure our programmes are structured with the opportunity to develop key transferable skills for employment.

Envisioning the global workplace

As an international university we pride ourselves on generating graduates with global attributes for the global workplace. Our student-centred style of learning will equip you with the skills and analytical abilities necessary to thrive in business and industry. Teaching and learning opportunities at Nottingham Malaysia are directly informed by cutting-edge research and technology.

Programme activities are enriched by guest lectures from visiting scholars, research seminars, workshops and student conferences. Classes are led by tutors who are actively involved in extending the boundaries of our knowledge, and who seek to promote a community of learning in which undergraduate and postgraduate teaching feeds directly into a collective and collaborative intellectual endeavour. The relatively small size of our student body with an average staff student ratio of 1:14, allows for a more intimate teaching and learning experience, with academics readily approachable to provide further one-on-one support where needed.

In addition, our personal tutorial system gives you access to academic staff to assist you in any non-academic issues that you may face during your time at University.

World-changing research

- Over 400 papers were published by academics in 2018*
- We currently have a portfolio of more than RM43 million for both internally and externally funded research-related activities.
- 5* rating from the Malaysian Research Assessment Instrument (MyRA)

* As submitted to MyRA 2018

Accolades

Recent awards for our academic staff include: Appointment as Academy of Science Malaysia Fellow (FASc) 2019; Winner of the L'Oréal-UNESCO International Rising Talents award 2018; Winner of the L'Oréal-UNESCO For Women in Science National Fellowship 2019;

Two shortlisted nominees for the Science, Technology and Digital category Women of the Future awards South East Asia 2020.

Support

We provide extensive support for our academic staff through initiatives such as the Early Career Researcher programme, and workshops organised by the newly formed Research and Knowledge Exchange hub.

We run regular competitions with opportunities for internal funding for various research-related activities.

Research

Here at Nottingham we deliver research that transforms lives and shapes the future, with a particular focus on addressing the challenges facing South East Asia and beyond.

We currently support more than 300 postgraduates and 280 research-active staff working on a large portfolio of interdisciplinary projects funded by government agencies, non-governmental organisations and companies.

Many of our research projects have international collaborators.

Future food Malaysia

In the face of climate change we must develop new, resilient crops.

Yields must also increase to feed the additional two billion people expected by 2050.

Better access to healthier, safer, more nutritious food is needed in all countries due the growing prevalence of pollutants, nutrient deficiencies and over-processed foods.

Our research identifies sustainable local solutions in Asia to the global challenge of feeding a growing population in a changing world. We have more than 150 active research projects spanning schools and departments in both faculties.

Developing sustainable societies

The world is changing in the face of population growth, climate change and diminishing natural resources we must deepen our understanding of changing environments and pioneer new ways to save our precious planet.

Our research seeks solutions towards preserving our environment for a more sustainable future. We have more than 100 active research projects spanning schools and departments in both faculties.

In addition to these major interdisciplinary research themes, we have established research groups and institutes on: digital frontiers, nanotechnology and advanced materials, green technologies, smart manufacturing, aerospace technology, and Inclusion and diversity in the workplace.

Our campus

Combining beautiful gardens, striking architecture and state-of-the-art learning and research facilities, our University is an inspirational place to live, work and study.

A strong sense of community

University of Nottingham Malaysia is characterised by its strong sense of community, created by approachable staff, a welcoming student body, excellent support services and a wide range of activities to help you meet new people and feel at home.

A truly Malaysian setting

We are based on a self-contained site near Semenyih in the state of Selangor, 30 kilometres from Malaysia's capital city, Kuala Lumpur (KL). The beautiful setting and state-of-the-art teaching, learning, research and leisure facilities combine to make an inspirational environment for studying and student life.

Transport is available from the campus to the nearest bus and rail stations, providing easy access to KL and the surrounding region. Kuala Lumpur International Airport is just a 30-minute drive away, making it an ideal base from which to explore locally and further afield.

Amenities for your convenience

Our self-sufficient campus provides students and staff with a range of amenities. Facilities include:

- 24-hour computer access
- convenience stores
- vending machines
- ATMs
- an extensive library
- a sports complex
- an Islamic Centre
- a health centre
- a creche

Prayer rooms are available 24-hours a day for Muslim students, with a free bus service provided to the mosque in Semenyih for Friday prayers. Buddhist, Christian and Hindu places of worship can be found in Semenyih and university facilities are also available to support and host these activities.

Eat, drink and socialise

The campus has an indoor and outdoor food court based in the Students' Association Building, which has recently been extended and renovated, providing a wide choice of food for all tastes. The University has also invested money in creating social and learning hubs for students in the Students' Association Building and around campus. These are perfect places to relax and catch up with friends.

Students' Association of UNM

As a student at the University, you are automatically a member of the Students' Association (SA), which focuses on student experience and also acts as the bridge between the student community and University management.

The SA encourages you to get to know your peers and get involved with the wide range of events and activities organised by the SA Executives and its clubs and societies, beginning with Freshers' Week for new students.

The SA receives an annual grant from the University in order to offer activities and improve equipment and facilities for students. We also have the authority to raise additional funds from profits made, by running activities and via business ventures run by students, such as its very own merchandise shop Nott A Shop.

You may choose to take the leadership challenge as an elected student officer in the SA Executive Committee, the Student Council Steering Committee, clubs and societies executive positions, or use your talents to organise or participate in events and activities. Whatever you decide to do, there are ample opportunities available to help develop your skills while enhancing your CV.

Freshers' Week

The SA aims to provide all new students with a fun-filled Freshers' Week experience. During Freshers' Week you can enjoy various events designed to welcome you to the University, make new friends and experience the diversity. Past activities have included ice-breaking sessions, karaoke, campus-wide treasure hunts, cabaret, bowling, BBQ nights, music jamming sessions and much more.

Networks

Networks bring together students either to discuss issues of importance or to work together to organise events, campaigns or other forms of value-adding activities to our student community.

Each network is chaired by an SA Executive Officer. Networks are also channels to collectively bring up welfare concerns to the University management while recommending ways to improve and resolve such matters.

Whilst playing a part in creating a green environment, the Sustainability Network also focuses on activities that are charitable and promote equal opportunity as well as social justice.

The networks under the various executive officers are:

- Education Network – Education Officer
- International Students' Bureau (ISB) – International Students' Officer
- Marketing and Communications Network – Vice President
- Postgraduate Students' Network (PGSN) – Postgraduate Officer

- Sports Network – Sports Officer
- Sustainability Network – Sustainability Officer
- Welfare Network –

Home Students' Officer and International Students Officer who deal with:

- Accommodation
- Food
- Health
- Security
- Transport

Student Council

The Student Council serves as a key component of our student community it is the highest governing and policy setting body of the Students' Association (SA). Council consists of over 40 student representatives who serve in the interest of all students. Councillors serve at various levels across our vibrant student community under the positions of: Student Council Steering Committee, SA Executive Officers, faculty and school representatives, postgraduate representatives, clubs and societies representatives, hall tutors and five random voting members from the student body. Council's roles include the consideration of business affecting the student community, initiation and framing of SA by laws and the regulation of SA policy

Student life

Our vibrant campus is welcoming and has many events and activities on offer. The Students' Association provides many opportunities to enhance university life, and our facilities enable you to socialise and participate in activities.

Find out more about the Students' Association at

Clubs and Societies

The SA has about 80 clubs and societies covering a wide spectrum of interests:

- Academic
- Creative arts
- Cultural
- Religious
- Special interests
- Sports

It is highly recommended that you become a member of one or more of our clubs and societies to build up your CV and for your own self-development.

Students' Association Executive Committee

The SA is run by an Executive Committee (EXCO) of nine elected full-time student volunteers holding various portfolios to serve the student community. The EXCO aims to improve the experience of student life by providing representation, development opportunities and quality services for all our students. No matter what is your level of study, your student experience will be taken care of by your elected peers from the time you step into the University until the day you graduate.

Your Graduate School

The Graduate School is committed to enhance the research experience of our postgraduates and early-career research staff as well as your personal career development by providing you with the skills and confidence to maximise your potential at the University of Nottingham Malaysia and beyond.

“Your potential, our support – the possibilities are endless”

Postgraduates are central to our research mission. We provide a year-round programme of social and academic-related events, as well as personal and professional support. Our dedicated team of trainers is committed to working with you to ensure you receive all the support and skills training you need to fulfill your potential.

We offer a dedicated postgraduate hub, a range of resources and development opportunities, training programmes, seminars, competitions and public engagement activities. Our hub includes a social space where you can come and relax, have a break from work or study, meet other postgraduates and early-career researchers and develop a constructive network of friends and colleagues.

Your Researcher Development

Our Researcher Development Programme delivers dedicated core training that is in line with the standards set out by the UK's major research funders. This means that as well as helping you to develop your research skills, you'll have access to a wide range of professional development opportunities, covering communication skills, careers, time management and entrepreneurship. You'll also have the chance to meet and work alongside leading researchers from other disciplines.

We also support your professional development via our Postgraduate Student Teachers programme. The programmes are aligned to the Professional Standard of Framework (PSF) areas of activity, core knowledge and professional values. The PSF is designed specifically for teaching and supporting learning in higher education.

External Engagement

Our range of outreach activities gives you unique opportunities to engage with the community and with professional leaders from different industry sectors. You'll find it not only interesting, but also rewarding and lots of fun. External engagement also inspires creativity and innovation, generates public awareness and is a great way to enhance the impact of your research.

Travel and Mobility

We offer a number of competitive financial awards to support you in presenting your research at an international conference or to conduct some of your research abroad. We also have a Graduate School in China and Graduate Centres at our UK campus which you can use should you spend any time there.

“Selamat Datang, Huān Yíng and Vanakkam!”

University of Nottingham Malaysia welcomes you to one of the most diverse nations in Asia.

Welcome to Malaysia

Covering an area of 127,350 square miles, Malaysia consists of two regions separated by the South China Sea: Peninsular Malaysia and Malaysian Borneo (also known as West and East Malaysia respectively). Peninsular Malaysia extends southeast from the border of Thailand. Malaysian Borneo consists of the states of Sabah and Sarawak which are located on the north-western coastal region of the island of Borneo. The country's population is over 30 million to date.

Malaysia is a country with a unique blend of cultural influences and ethnic groups. The country is home to three main ethnic groups: Malays, Chinese and Indians, as well as the native Orang Asli.

Having been colonised by the Portuguese, Dutch and British, see these influences in the architecture, hear them in Malay language and taste them in the internationally-acclaimed Malaysian cuisine. Visitors to Malaysia are also left awestruck by the tropical beauty of the country - with pristine beaches, some of the world's best underwater wildlife, ancient rainforests and UNESCO world heritage sites to explore, nature enthusiasts will find an exciting home in Malaysia.

The capital city

The Malaysia campus is a 45-minute drive away from Kuala Lumpur (KL), one of Asia's most vibrant cities. KL is a true metropolis with some of the world's tallest buildings, largest shopping havens and modern infrastructure. However, Kuala Lumpur also has pockets of historical sites, traditional villages (known as kampung) and greenery which are fun to explore on the weekends. The city is served by a comprehensive transportation system including buses, trains, a monorail and a number of airports.

Kuala Lumpur lies in the heart of Southeast Asia, and due to the number of low-cost and international carriers transiting in the country, it is an inexpensive starting point for travel around Southeast Asia and Australia.

International student support services

Our international student support service promotes the wellbeing and social interaction of international students. We provide invitations for visas and opening bank accounts, advice on any problems you have with living and studying in Malaysia and information on the professional support services available at the University.

Medical insurance

Medical insurance coverage is compulsory and arranged for you by International Student Support department. The coverage takes effect from the point of registration on campus.

 nottingham.edu.my/international/health-and-insurance

Student visa support

All non-Malaysian nationals who wish to study at an educational institution in Malaysia are required to hold a valid Student Pass. We assist international students in arranging dependant passes for spouse or family members, renewing the student visa while transferring schools within Malaysia and any other visa-related issues.

Our international campuses

During your time with us, you might have the chance to study at one of our campuses in the UK or China. All our campuses offer a warm and friendly environment, interesting landscapes and first-rate facilities.

Jubilee Campus, UK

UK campus

Jubilee Campus

Jubilee Campus opened in 1999 and is just one mile from University Park. It is an exemplar in sustainable brownfield regeneration and has won numerous awards for its environmentally friendly design. The modern, purpose-built buildings include teaching and research facilities, residences, retail, social and support amenities, libraries and a sports hall.

Aspire, one of the country's tallest free-standing works of public art, soars to 60 metres above the campus. The adjoining Innovation Park was launched in 2008 and continues to expand and evolve, hosting specialist facilities for global satellite navigation systems, renewable energy technologies, mental health research and aerospace technologies.

University of Nottingham Ningbo China

China Campus

University of Nottingham Ningbo China

China campus became the first British university to establish and run a campus independently within mainland China when the first intake of students were admitted in 2004.

Around two-and-a-half hours by car from Shanghai, the China Campus is based at the Higher Education Park in Ningbo, a historic port city on China's eastern coast. The campus covers 144 acres of landscaped parkland, with a central lake and its own version of Nottingham's famous Trent Building. There are academic, residential and support facilities for almost 8,000 students.

UK campus

University Park Campus

Set around a lake with beautifully kept gardens, the 330-acre University Park is the University's principal campus. Receiving Green Flag Award status every year since 2003, it is one of the most attractive campuses in the country and features a mixture of period buildings and modern teaching and research facilities, with 12 halls of residence, a conference and exhibition centre, sports facilities and Nottingham Lakeside Arts.

University Park Campus

Sutton Bonington Campus

UK campus

Sutton Bonington Campus

Located in the beautiful countryside of south Nottinghamshire, Sutton Bonington Campus occupies a spacious 100-acre site with its own teaching and learning facilities, sports centre, student guild, social amenities and halls of residence.

Ten miles south of University Park, the campus benefits from state-of-the-art teaching and research facilities. The campus also houses the School of Veterinary Medicine and Science which opened in 2006 as the first in Britain for more than 50 years.

Our scholarships

University of Nottingham Malaysia grants scholarships to deserving and academically excellent students. Applicants are selected based on their academic achievement and the socio-economic status of their family. In addition, there are various sources of financial assistance available to help fund your education.

Automatic scholarships

We offer several automatic scholarships for alumni of University of Nottingham, children of alumni, siblings, spouses and alumni of Universitas 21 (U21) institutions.

Arts and Social Sciences Excellence Award Scholarship

All PGT students applying to pursue either a full time or part time Master programme are eligible for 25% fee reduction if they fulfil all admission requirements and possess strong upper second class honours degree.

Arts and Social Sciences Excellence Award Scholarship

The Future Leader Award is a partial scholarship at a value of 25% of tuition fee and is open to MBA students of NUBS Malaysia, and students applying for the MA Educational Leadership and Management, School of Education.

Students applying for this award must fulfil all admission requirements, possess an upper second class honours degree or equivalent, have at least 5 years of relevant working experience and demonstrate outstanding leadership potential.

Financial assistance

Postgraduate students may also seek funding through the Employees Provident Fund (EPF) Withdrawal Scheme for Education.

Students with outstanding academic results can also seek sponsorship from other sponsoring bodies.

Applied Psychology

At a glance

- We are a world-leading provider of education and training in applied psychology and related subjects, and a thriving centre for research in applied psychology.
- We are committed to an international approach, our staff and students come from over 40 different countries and we are involved in research collaborations with colleagues across the globe.

Teaching and learning

Applied Psychology in the Division of Organisational and Applied Psychology enjoys a strong reputation for teaching and research. Our international team of staff have expertise in a diverse range of areas in applied psychology. They are actively engaged in the collection, evaluation and dissemination of research activities informing policy, best practice and education both nationally and internationally.

The division first opened its doors at the University of Nottingham Malaysia in December 2006, and aims to promote the contribution of applied psychology to organisational development, occupational and public health and safety, and to the management of related health services.

Research

Our research in applied psychology aims to promote 'healthy people, healthy organisations and healthy communities'. Our research activities are managed through three clusters: culture and social cognition in organisations, learning and development, and occupational health and wellbeing.

The culture and social cognition in organisations' cluster is concerned with the impact of culture and group level processes on work and organisational outcomes.

The learning and development cluster is concerned with individual and organisational level processes and issues that impact on people's growth in organisations and communities.

The occupational health and wellbeing cluster is concerned with contemporary issues in occupational health and wellbeing, with an emphasis on cross-cultural contexts.

Professional accreditation

The MSc Occupational Health and Safety Leadership is accredited by the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH), Europe's professional body for leading health and safety professionals. This confers eligibility for graduate membership leading to chartered status with the IOSH.

Career prospects

Management psychologists are well paid and in demand as they make a positive difference to organisational culture, productivity and performance. Most work within a variety of large public or private organisations, often specialising in specific areas of work psychology. Some choose to work for psychology and management consultancies.

Graduates of the MSc Occupational Health and Safety Leadership may pursue a career in occupational health and safety. Experienced practitioners could specialise in a particular area of health and safety or work freelance as a consultant.

Our PhD or MPhil graduates often pursue careers in academia or research, working for government departments, international research organisations, Universities or as experts or consultants in their field of expertise.

Taught programmes

MSc Management Psychology

The MSc Management Psychology programme is designed around three critical management activities: developing effective workers, identifying competent workers, and managing productive organisations. You will also learn about the scientific foundations of psychology and how to use psychological theories and methods. The programme is offered on a part-time, flexible learning basis over 24 or 36 months. Face-to-face teaching and tutorials, and workshop-based teaching with experts, are both supported and enhanced by an e-learning environment. For the programme you will require: a personal computer with a word-processing programme; email and internet; a printer; the ability to be organised and work independently, and a willingness to engage in teamwork.

Programme structure

You will complete 120 credits of taught modules plus an empirical research project worth 60 credits on topics relevant to your specialist area of interest. The programme is organised in workshop-based modules. Modules vary from 5, 10 and 20 credits. 20 credit modules are organised over two weeks with face-to-face teaching taking place during two consecutive weekends and three week day evenings. 10 credit modules require face-to-face teaching over one weekend and three weekday evenings. 5 credit modules involve face-to-face teaching over one weekend. The schedule for the different modules will be published in advance so that you can plan your time accordingly. The timetable for taught modules for the year ahead will be published each August. Your empirical project will be planned in the final semester of study.

Typical core modules

- Applied Research Project
- Consultancy Skills
- Introduction to Research Methods
- Introduction to Management Psychology and Quantitative Workplace Data
- Leadership Engagement and Motivation
- Learning, Training and Development
- Organisational Change and Development
- Psychological Assessment at Work
- Qualitative Research Methods
- Strategic Human Resource Management and Managing Diversity

MSc Occupational Health and Safety Leadership

The MSc Occupational Health and Safety Leadership is a programme for those who have an interest in the management of health and safety at work. The programme presents health and safety leadership within a problem-solving framework and is designed around two central activities: identifying and managing contemporary risks to health and safety; and developing effective leadership strategies. The programme is offered on a part-time, flexible learning basis over 24 or 36 months. Face-to-face teaching and tutorials, and workshop-based teaching with experts, are both supported and enhanced by an e-learning environment. For the programme you will require: a personal computer with a word-processing programme; email and internet; the ability to be organised and work independently; and a willingness to engage in teamwork.

Programme structure

You will complete 120 credits of taught modules plus an empirical research project worth 60 credits, or one major (40 credits) and one minor (20 credits) dissertation on topics relevant to your area of interest in occupational health and safety. The programme is organised in workshop-based modules. These 20-credit modules will be organised over two weeks with face-to-face teaching taking place during weekends and three evenings. The schedule for the different modules will be published in advance so that you can plan your schedule accordingly. The timetable for taught modules for the year ahead will be published each July. The empirical project will be planned in the final semester of study.

Typical core modules

- Applied Research Project or Major and Minor Dissertation
- Occupational Hazards and Risk Management Strategies
- Occupational Health and Safety Law, Policies and Compliance: International Perspectives
- Organisations, Management and Leadership
- Overview of Contemporary Challenges to Safety and Health
- Research Methods and Evidence-Based Problem Solving in Occupational Safety and Health
- Specialist Issues in Contemporary Safety and Health

Business

Teaching and learning

Nottingham University Business School (NUBS) Malaysia is a large and culturally diverse school, with over 30 full-time academic staff and over 700 undergraduate and postgraduate students from across the globe. An integral part of Nottingham University Business School, UK, our vision is to shape the future of responsible business and management in an increasingly inter-connected world. The School has unrivalled global reach through tri-campus locations in the UK, China and Malaysia, offering unique perspectives and connections to changing business ideas. Established in 2000, our presence in Malaysia provides unique insights into Asian business growth and development whilst reading towards a British degree.

Research

In the latest UK Research Excellence Framework (REF), we ranked sixth for 'research power' out of 101 UK business and management institutions. Research and teaching at the Malaysia Campus is organised within the following academic divisions:

- accounting, finance and law
- business economics and quantitative methods
- leadership, management and marketing

Many members of academic staff in NUBS Malaysia are members of research centres in the University of Nottingham that are affiliated with the School. These centres bring together academicians across a range of disciplines who share an interest in understanding, analysing and developing perspectives and thought leadership in contemporary business issues:

- Global Centre for Banking and Financial Innovation (GCBFI)
- International Centre for Corporate Social Responsibility (ICCSR)
- Nottingham Centre for Research on Globalisation and Economic Policy (GEP)

At a glance

- The University of Nottingham is ranked amongst the top 1% of universities internationally. We are placed in the global top 100 of the QS World University Rankings 2021, which also ranks us amongst the top 100 in 2020 for 'Economics and Econometrics' and 'Statistics and Operational Research'.
- Nottingham University Business School's (NUBS) MBA ranking on The Economist 2021 Full-Time MBA Ranking has risen 29 spots to place 55 globally and 3rd among UK business schools.

MBA Programme

The MBA programme provides a programme in general financial and corporate management, following a core programme while allowing specialisation in finance. Our programme will add value to your first degree by developing an integrated and critically aware understanding of management and organisations in an international context. You will develop knowledge and skills in fundamental management disciplines while allowing customisation with specialist modules in various areas of management. The syllabus is the same to that offered in Nottingham University Business School, UK.

Overseas study

Individuals wishing to study overseas can take up to two approved (elective) modules delivered by NUBS UK, or our overseas partner institution in Singapore (subject to the availability of modules).

Programme structure

The programme offers a flexible mode of study. You must complete a total of 12 taught modules and a management project. The core modules are aimed at developing knowledge of the fundamental management disciplines, and the application of this knowledge to business issues. The elective modules allow you to concentrate in-depth on more specific subjects according to your interests and career requirements.

Module assessments are mixed including group work, presentations, assignments and exams. We also have various business leaders for talks in our 'Business Leader Series'. You will also have the opportunity to attend study skills sessions and additional workshops and seminars on research methods relevant to management projects.

The management project can be either an individual project of 20,000 words (weight 100%), or a company-based research project of 15,000 words (weight 70%) with an individual presentation of 20 minutes including Q and A and submission of slides (weight 30%), or a Business Plan document of 15,000 words (weight 70%) with an individual presentation of 20 minutes including Q and A and submission of slides (weight 30%), on an approved subject relevant to your chosen specialisation.

You may use the management project to concentrate in-depth on a management topic specific to your individual interests and career requirements.

Global experience opportunity

The School organises an international study tour for MBA students every year, offering a unique business and cultural programme that allows students to gain direct experience of contemporary business and management issues. The study tour is an optional activity separate from those covered by the programme's fees.

Modules

Typical core modules

Economics

Teaching and learning

The School of Economics was established in 2010 at the University of Nottingham Malaysia and in 2011 at the Ningbo China Campus, confirming our position as truly global. We have an enviable reputation and a strong commitment to teaching and research of the highest quality. We consistently rank among the top 10 in the UK in The Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide.

Research

As one of the premier economics departments for research, we enjoy an international reputation for research and scholarship. The school also promotes an active research environment which fosters collaborative research links.

In the UK latest Research Excellence Framework (REF), the school was ranked 6th in the UK for research power, which shows both the strength and depth of our research activities. 90% of our research activities were considered 'world-leading' or 'internationally excellent'.

The Globalisation and Economic Policy Centre is a major research centre studying the impact of globalisation and economic policy. The Centre's academics have advised the UK Treasury, the World Bank and the World Trade Organisation.

Career prospects

A postgraduate research degree from our top ranked School of Economics opens the door to many exciting career opportunities. PhD

We offer high-quality doctoral training to postgraduate students who wish to pursue a PhD. As a research student you will work under a supervisor who will assist you in your research and thesis design. By registering for your postgraduate research degree at the Malaysia Campus, you will benefit from dual dissertation supervision by academics based in Malaysia and the UK.

This programme offers two options: The first is for students who prefer to complete the entire programme at the Malaysia Campus; the second is a 1+2 split scheme where you will spend all, or a substantial part, of your first year at the UK Campus. The rest of your programme will then be completed at the Malaysia Campus.

Our current areas of research include:

- behavioural economics
- development economics
- experimental economics
- international economics
- macroeconomics
- microeconomics

If you are interested in applying, we would recommend that you familiarise yourself with our research areas and staff expertise and then contact us to discuss your research project proposal with the relevant supervisor in the first instance. Please visit our applications pages to find out how to apply.

Taught programmes

MA/PGDip/PGCert in Education

The MA/PG Diploma/PG Certificate in Education are unique modular and flexible programmes designed to reflect the needs of individuals or organisational cohorts. While each module has its own particular focus, all are concerned with investigating contemporary educational issues in the light of economic and social contexts, appropriate literature and the shared experience of course members. A hallmark of these programmes are their commitment to equality and diversity and their flexibility to meet the needs of individuals and organisations. The overall purpose is to deepen and refine your capacity for critical reflection on your practice as well as on the mental models which inform your work.

Cohort applications

We welcome approaches from educational organisations who may wish to develop a bespoke cohort programme.

Programme structure

The PGDip requires candidates to complete at least four modules totalling 120 credits, whilst the PGCert requires successful completion of 60 credits (two or three modules). The MA requires completion of 120 credits of taught modules plus a 12,000-15,000 word dissertation. Each module is worth 30 credits and is assessed by a written assignment of 5,000-6,000 words. There is currently one core module (30 credits) and an extensive selection of optional modules. Modules are taught within a block of four days over two consecutive weekends.

Typical core modules

- Practice Based Inquiry

Typical optional modules

- Assessment in Language Education
- Communication and Literacy
- Debating Special and Inclusive Education
- Effective Leadership and Change in Education
- Issues in Educational Leadership
- Language Teaching: Methodology and Curriculum
- Leading Learning
- Managing Language Teaching and Language Teachers
- Material and Technology in Language Education
- Relationships and Behaviour
- Teaching English for Academic Purposes: Context, Language and Pedagogy
- Teaching Language to Young Learners
- Understanding Language Learning and the Language Learner

Dissertation Module:

This substantive piece of scholarship within the field of the programme will normally be based on interests and skills you have developed in the programme of the modules already studied. You will choose a topic in consultation with your programme leader and an appropriate supervisor.

MA/PGDip/PGCert Educational Leadership and Management

The MA Educational and Leadership Management is a core programme of study for leaders and managers in education. It is vitally relevant for middle and senior managers and leaders in schools and post-compulsory educational organisations in the UK and overseas, as well as those who advise managers and leaders. The programme aims to strengthen your leadership and management skills. It also enables you to apply theory and ideas within your workplace and utilise existing and emerging research-informed knowledge of educational leadership internationally. It will enable you to develop, broaden and deepen your critical understanding of your organisation and the environment in which you operate.

Cohort applications

We welcome approaches from educational organisations who may wish to develop a bespoke cohort programme.

Programme structure

For the MA Educational Leadership and Management, you will need to successfully complete 180 credits. This consists of four core modules, including work of 30 credits each. In addition, you will need to submit a 12,000-15,000 dissertation worth 60 credits. For the PGDip, you will need to complete all modules to the value of 120 credits, and for the PGCert, you will need to complete modules to the value of 60 credits. There is no dissertation requirement for PGDip or PGCert. Modules are taught within a block of four days over two consecutive weekends. Each module will usually be assessed by a written assignment of 5,000-6,000 words.

Typical core modules

- Effective Leadership and Change in Education
- Issues in Educational Leadership
- Leading Learning

English

Teaching and learning

The School of English is staffed by international academics with a wealth of teaching and research experience and expertise. Our staff and students work side-by-side to investigate a range of topics around the use of English, both in literature and in everyday language. Students investigate how language shapes, and is shaped by, the dynamic environments in which it is used. As well as collaborating with our counterparts in the UK and China, staff also work closely with colleagues based elsewhere in the faculty, especially those specialising in English language and literacy, film, television and cultural studies, in the School of Education and the School of Media, Languages and Cultures.

Research

The School of English offers research opportunities across a variety of topics related to English studies and draws on the resources of Nottingham's renowned Centre for Research in Applied Linguistics – an interdisciplinary research centre devoted to describing and understanding language as it is acquired and used in the real world. Research expertise within the school includes: 19th-century literature; post-colonial studies, American, British, Indian, South-East Asian and Malaysian literatures; creative writing; grammar; gothic literature, the fairy tale, literary theory, gender, identity, disprogramme analysis, World Englishes, grammatical analysis, interactional linguistics, sociolinguistics, publishing studies and systemic functional linguistics. Please refer to the school website for more details on potential specialisation.

Media, Languages and Cultures

Teaching and learning

As convergence and digitalization now form part of the much bigger multimedia industry, there is an increased need to make sense of the implications for society by conducting more research into the areas of communications and culture. Our research programmes provide you with an opportunity to explore contemporary cultural, media and communication theories, policy and practice in depth.

Research

Our research is conducted at the crossroads of media and culture, communication technology and social change, and is directed through the Centre for the Study of Communications and Cultures (CSCC). The emerging digital and globalised world provides a focus for research that considers a variety of media and cultural forms. Substantive, focused research of this nature is carried out, yielding results of great benefit and consequence.

The first of its kind in Malaysia, the CSCC aims to bring together local and international scholars to produce results that will inform wider policies. CSCC's researchers are dedicated to carrying out interdisciplinary research into the role and politics of communication and culture in this era of globalisation.

Career prospects

The MA programme provides advanced skills in research and analysis, and a broad understanding of contemporary developments in media, communications and culture from a critical perspective. Graduates of the MA have gone on to work in the NGO sector, government service, and private sector including in advertising and public relations, market-based research consultancies, film and television, print media, digital content and marketing, foreign service, advisory and consultancy roles, as well as further postgraduate study at the PhD level.

Taught programmes

MA Media, Communications and Culture

The MA in Media, Communications and Culture provides you with the theoretical and analytical training required to continue to a research degree or to develop professional skills relevant to working at management level in the fields of media and communications policy and industry.

The programme will develop your specialist knowledge of key research methods, which will be supplemented by specific empirical examples and case studies to increase your understanding and critical awareness of the dynamics of media transformation and the challenges this creates within politics, business, public administration and everyday life.

Using an interdisciplinary approach and drawing upon current research, the programme also aims to equip you with the practical skills and ability required to engage insightfully with relevant developments and discourses in this field.

Programme structure

The full-time MA Media, Communications and Culture programme lasts 12 months and is divided into two semesters and a summer period, and you will take three modules per semester. You will then complete a dissertation over the summer to be submitted in September. If you are studying the programme part-time, you can complete this within 24 or 36 months, depending on your circumstances.

This programme covers the history of contemporary media communications and cultural studies, new forms of political economy and agency in an era of digital media. Some modules cover geography and information infrastructures, the ethics and politics of communication practices, and the symbolic and aesthetic forms of contemporary media. Other modules draw from critical theories in philosophy, poststructuralism, feminism, posthumanism and postcolonialism to think through and understand the role of the humanities and social sciences today.

Typical core modules

- Approaches to Theory
- Issues and Challenges in Contemporary Media
- Mass Media
- Postcolonial Theory
- Research Methods and Design
- Working in the Culture Industry: Case Study Workshops

Research opportunitiesMRes/MPhil/PhD

Through the CSCC, we offer high-quality doctoral training to postgraduate students who wish to pursue research either at the MRes, MPhil or PhD levels. As a research student you will work under a supervisor who will assist you in your research and thesis design.

Our current areas of research include:

- comparative literature, Japanese literature, literary translation
- digital cultures, youth and social networks
- food, identity and transnationalism
- international information flows – questions of imbalance, cultural and media imperialism and dependency
- media and human rights – these include communications rights, media and gender relations, and media and minority groups
- performing arts: music, drama, performance, applied creative practices.

- Southeast Asian cinema, particularly Indonesian, Malaysian and Singaporean films
- the history, policies and structures of the culture industries – these encompass structural analysis, political economy and post-colonial development studies

If you are interested in applying, we would recommend that you familiarise yourself with our research areas and staff expertise and then contact us to discuss your research project proposal with the relevant supervisor in the first instance. You can then visit our applications pages to find out how to apply.

Politics, History and International Relations

Teaching and learning

Our academic staff are active researchers, pursuing cutting-edge, policy-relevant and curiosity-driven research across a broad spectrum of international development, international relations and politics. Our research and teaching activities are enhanced by the resources from our associated schools in the UK and the Division of International Studies at the University of Nottingham Ningbo China.

We host our own seminars in which academics and practitioners share their research findings and work experience. The school's student society, PHIR-NOTT, supplements these formal activities with its own round-table discussions, guest speaker series and other events.

Research

Research collaboration is promoted through the University of Nottingham's Asia Research Institute (UoNARI). We currently conduct research in contemporary international history, global economic integration, global environmental policy formation, political theory, Asian regionalism, the politics, society and international relations of the EU, Southeast Asia, the Middle East and China.

Career prospects

A master's degree in international development provides a springboard to further study or to pursue your professional career. Postgraduate study in international relations will equip you for careers in a range of fields. We currently have graduates working in foreign ministries; international business and finance; international journalism and media; international organisations; local and national government; non-governmental and aid sectors; teaching and academic research; and think tanks, policy advice and lobbying. The school is building its alumni network both to keep in contact with its graduates and to put current students in contact with alumni to explore employment opportunities.

Taught programmes

MSc International Development Management

International development is the multidisciplinary study of how communities and states attain the economic, socio-political and other characteristics associated with development. This programme is designed to give you the opportunity to: develop a comprehensive multidisciplinary understanding of international development; examine the possibilities for development in a globalising world; understand the reasons for the persistence of global poverty and inequality and how current development paradigms contribute to poverty reduction and human development; apply development theory to enhance development practice at the grassroots; and identify, design and implement appropriate interventions to improve development outcomes. It provides the practical skills required for employment in the development sector, including how to design, implement and manage development projects.

Programme structure

You will be required to complete 180 credits over the period of your studies: 120 credits of taught modules and a 60-credit dissertation, based on your own original research. The full-time and part-time evening class variant of the degree is taught at our city centre facility, The Kuala Lumpur Teaching Centre, at the Chulan Tower, Jalan Conlay – a great option for those based in Kuala Lumpur and in full-time employment.

Typical core modules

- Dissertation: International Development
- Field Technologies
- Introduction to International Development
- Research Methods and Design

Typical optional modules

- Asia in Transregional Perspective
- Civil Society and Global Development
- Contemporary Security Challenges
- Global Perspectives on International Relations
- Global Political Economy
- Human Security
- The International Relations of Southeast Asia

MA International Relations

International relations studies the complex relations between and among states, societies, individuals, identities and cultures, theoretically and empirically. The discipline covers such areas as economics, law, politics and security. It considers deeper questions relating to how we understand and conceptualise contemporary global transformations. Throughout the programme, you will approach the subject from several different perspectives: from a state-centric approach; from the perspective of complex interdependence; and from a globalisation perspective. The degree is open to students of any discipline or career background, but is popular for people working in or wishing to work in government or diplomatic service, international organisations and the media.

mynottingham.nottingham.edu.my

Application fee

The University charges an application fee of RM100 for Malaysian applicants and RM200 for international applicants for all programmes. This fee applies to online and paper applications.

nottingham.edu.my/applications

Step 1

Apply online or complete the paper application form (details above).

Supporting documents needed

- academic certificates and transcripts of previous studies
- copy of ID page of passport for international applicants
- copy of NRIC for Malaysian applicants
- English language qualifications (if applicable)
- one academic reference form for postgraduate taught and two references for MBA and postgraduate research

If you are a postgraduate research applicant please also submit an outline of your research interest/proposal.

Step 2

An acknowledgement email (with Nottingham ID) will be sent to you upon receipt of your application.

Step 3

Your application will be considered by our admissions tutors and a decision will be made within two working weeks. It can take up to three months for postgraduate research applications to be processed. A confirmation email will be sent to applicants once a decision has been made.

Successful applicants will receive a notification through email and will be able to log in to MyNottingham to download the following documentation (hard copies are not provided):

- offer Letter
- offer pack (containing next steps, accommodation, student visa, Wellbeing and Learning Support Services and payment of tuition fees information) - link will be provided in the offer letter

Applicants and agents will be able to view the progress of applications and make payments online through MyNottingham.

Step 4

Offer holders will be given a four-week deadline to accept the offer and pay a tuition fee deposit of RM1,000 (Malaysian offer holders) or RM2,000 (International offer holders) before the lapsed date in the offer letter. This amount shall be offset from the first semester's tuition fee.

The tuition fee deposit is not applicable to postgraduate research applicants.

Step 5

You will be able to apply for on-campus accommodation and your student visa after you have accepted your offer and paid the tuition fee deposit.

Step 6

Prior to registration day, you will receive an email which contains registration information.

It is important to note that the University of Nottingham Malaysia requires all offer holders to complete two different parts of the registration process - online registration and in person registration.

Entry requirement guidelines

Applicants must have graduated from an approved university. Other equivalent qualifications will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Entry requirements in the prospectus and website may not always apply and individual offers may vary.

English language requirement guidelines

IELTS, TOEFL and PTE (Academic) test results must be less than two years old and all IELTS must be the academic version of the test.

MUET results are valid for five years from the date of the release of results.

Applying for a PhD or MPhil

University of Nottingham Malaysia offers a range of research degrees across all faculties and most schools and departments. You will still have to complete a formal application for a PhD or MPhil programme. However, there are some additional steps that you will need to take before you begin your application.

Step 1

Choose a topic and consider which subject area you are interested in and draft a brief outline that you could email to or discuss with a potential supervisor.

Step 2

Find a potential supervisor by using the relevant school or faculty pages for your subject to explore the research interests of our academics. We advise that you begin to look for a supervisor before you apply, as this will reduce the length of time it takes to complete the application process.

Step 3

Create your proposal which should demonstrate an awareness of your chosen topic and an indication that you have considered the parameters of your research. Once you have discussed this with your potential supervisor they will advise you on your next steps.

Step 4

Apply through the University's formal application process.

International students

Please submit your application at least three months before the intake in order to process your visa. The University does not guarantee the availability on accommodation and completion of visa application before the last date of registration if application is made in less than three months. We can only process your application if all the required forms and documents are submitted and payment of the application fee is made.

Please note that international students can only study part time by fulfilling their visa requirements. For further information, please contact us.

What are we looking for?

Consideration will be given to whether applicants will be able to fulfil the objectives of their programme of study and achieve the standards required. A range of factors additional to, and in some cases instead of, formal examination of results are considered in the selection process. These can include:

- additional evidence of achievement, motivation and potential gathered through an interview, assessment of written materials or additional selection tests

- other factors as appropriate to the discipline, such as employment or volunteer work in relevant fields and sustained critical engagement with relevant issues
- the personal statement and reference
